Job Description	The department of renal services is a dynamic department that functions under the auspices of the Ministry of Health, Brunei Darussalam. It provides services for the entire population of Brunei and caters for all modalities of renal replacement therapy including haemodialysis (HD), peritoneal dialysis (PD) and renal transplantation. The country has two acute centres; the Raja Isteri Pengiran Anak Saleha (RIPAS) Hospital in Bandar Seri Begawan and Suri Seri Begawan Hospital in Kuala Belait. Both centres have the capacity to look after acute patients requiring emergency dialysis. There are 5 satellite dialysis centres in the country looking after over 800 HD patients. The country has adopted a peritoneal dialysis preference policy, which provides preferential counselling for potential ESRD patients requiring dialysis. Living-related renal transplantations are also performed locally for suitable candidates. Outpatient renal services are provided in all the major hospitals in the country. The department has also been consistently active and productive with research and academic work, with numerous opportunities for teaching and journal publications.
